About the Filmmakers

Greg Koorhan - Producer/Director

Greg Koorhan has been passionate about movies and filmmaking since age 15 when he got his hands on his father's 8mm camera.

A graduate of the University of Michigan, his work in advertising and production has been recognized by his peers, nationally and internationally, in every medium. His company, Crossbow Studio (www.crossbowstudio.com), was ranked in the Philadelphia Business Journal's Top 25 Video Production Firms since 2009.

Greg began creating original entertainment in 2008 and his films have won awards at regional and international festivals across the United States. "Following Chase" is his third short film.

Joe Moser - Composer

Joe Moser studied jazz and classical piano at an early age, and continued his education at Berklee College of Music. He has since proved to be a prolific composer, producer, and musical director, accruing a substantial list of film, advertising, and musical theater credits. Joe has worked on the musical team for films such as Tim Burton's "9" and "Beethoven's Big Break." Most recently, he co-produced a remix/re-interpretation for Grammy nominated recording artist BT.

Joe wrote the original score for "Following Chase" as well as the sound design. This is his second collaboration with Crossbow Studio.
